9 For Discussion

9.1 Chief Executive Report [Pages 18/Ara Council/05/569-583]

The report was taken as read. The Chief Executive provided the following verbal summary:

- a Ongoing financial performance and ytd figures are tracking with a deficit, normal at this point in the year with relative timing of income and costs.
- b Workload allocation tool – still have a little way to go with this tool but it will provide the data to be making informed decisions. The Chief Executive officially thanked colleagues Emma Henshall and Hemi Hoskins for their work with the launch of the workload allocation tool across departments as this has involved a fair amount of work outside of normal business hours. There has been particular support across Humanities with colleagues testing the tool. At this stage, it is noted that there are huge inconsistencies within the levels of programmes and the types of delivery and research.
- c EFTS – at this stage, it was advised that the forecast for full year is likely to be around 7,000EFTS against a full year budget of 7,308 EFTS. The proportional gap for this year can be dealt with, but going forwards, we will need to look at resizing the mix of provision.
- d The reforecast based on EFTS going forward has been delayed due to the implementation of the new FMIS system and the way the cost centres are arranged within this.
- e Some complexity around the business area. There should be a saving of 10 FTE's but it is impossible to save more than 2 FTE's due to cross delivery. This is now being redesigned. The Chief Executive reassured Council that for every new course a small business case is completed and sent through to TKM with costings attached to it.
- f The figures for Computing were discussed – it was noted that the costs have increased yet have a reduced number of EFTS. This issue is being incorporated into the general reviews.
- g It is difficult to know whether the free fees will bump up EFTS for the second half of the year. The new dashboards that are being worked on will pick this up. These should be ready for the August meeting and at some point, these will also be available to access on phones through Power BI.

It was resolved that the Chief Executive's report and its contents be received and noted.

9.2 Health and Safety

Student Incident –

- a The Chief Executive spoke at length in relation to the assault on one of Ara's Bachelor of Nursing students in the Hagley park area whilst walking to her car following an afternoon shift. As a result the following actions have been and are being worked on:

- i Ara has a tight working relationship with the CDHB. A meeting has been set up for 21 May with David Meates, Chief Executive of CDHB, to discuss what we can jointly do to mitigate any events of this nature. The Chief Executive has also discussed the matter with Stella Ward (Acting Executive Director Allied Health) from the CDHB. He also expressed a wish for David Meates to join him for a walk around the areas in question, specifically looking at safe zones and lighting. Council requested that the Chief Executive stress to the CDHB that action needs to be taken and that the current situation is unacceptable for our students.
- ii Council were advised that each Ara student currently has a briefing by their clinical placement tutor and by the CDHB; all students have security cards; whilst working with the CDHB, an overview on health and safety issues in general and around the clinical areas they are working in is provided. Ara, in general, also tutors every student on 'safe routes'.
- iii The Chief Executive reviewed the incident and our processes with colleagues from the Department of Nursing, Midwifery and Allied Health and is satisfied that all that could have been done has been done.
- iv It was agreed that car parking around the hospital is not an easy resolution but there is increased pressure to find a safe solution to parking for our students.
- b This also relates to the discussions that Council had at their March meeting involving health and safety for Ara students in work related learning and there is ongoing work on developing what Ara can do in this respect.
- c Council discussed the above issues in relation to HREF. This is likely to relate to business hours rather than safety at night-time, however, as it develops it was agreed we will see more in context of the relatable hours.
- d Student transfers between the Ara campus and HREF were discussed, especially given that the library and common facilities are based at City Campus. The Chief Executive advised that he has a meeting scheduled with the Chief Executive of ECan to discuss bus routes. Council discussed an interim option of Ara providing transport and Stephen Collins agreed to get a price from one of his clients who runs a private bus company in Christchurch.

Action: Stephen Collins to feedback on price for bus run.

[AP1871 Stephen Collins]

- e It was confirmed the decant to HREF of approximately 1500 students will likely take place mid-July.
- f Council advised the Chief Executive that, in the final table on the health and safety report, the 70% completion rate for placements (to develop processes that address placements and placement location), is unacceptable. In general there is slow completion activity in this table and this leaves Ara exposed. The Chief Executive confirmed he will look more closely into this.

Action: Chief Executive to work to improve completion rates for health and safety activities.

10.1 Chair Report

- a The Chair thanked those Council members who attended the March Graduation ceremony.
- b The Chair advised that she continues to be involved in the sector issues attending related meetings on an ongoing basis.

 - iv Elizabeth was pleased to advise that her concern in regard to costs v awards has been taken on board by the Committee.
- b Other – Stephen Collins advised Council of a discussion with Ara that had arisen with a $20m investment opportunity; the potential had been investigated but it was agreed that it was not prudent to take any further at this stage due to the time it would have taken to get into a positive cash flow.

- a) Academic Board [Pages 18/Ara Council/05/584-586]

The report was taken as read.

It was agreed that the August meeting in Timaru will not involve an overnight stay.

10.6 March Media Report [Pages 18/Ara Council/05/598-600]

The report was taken as read and Council were pleased with the new format, with a request to check with Marketing that all the links are working before distribution.

- a Key messages – these were discussed and Council agreed the following highlights: activities from the Kaiārahi relating to alignment with Ngai Tahu; completion of the annual report; health and safety comment from the Chief Executive and the Chair’s active engagement in the current sector review.
- b Discussion on contractors in Auckland and the potential for our students. The Chief Executive advised we have to be careful about out of region delivery when looking at service provision for Trades in Auckland, however, it could be interesting in the micro-credential space.

The meeting concluded at 2.50pm.

Dear Therese

NEW CONFLICTS OF INTEREST MODEL STANDARDS FOR THE STATE SERVICES

Attached is a copy of new model standards that outline how we, as a Public Service, can demonstrate best practice in reporting and management of conflicts of interest.

I am issuing these model standards using my powers under Section 57(4) of the State Sector Act 1988. The standards set out the key elements for identifying, disclosing and managing conflicts of interest. They also provide information about supporting people to speak up when they have concerns.

Public Service chief executives, please forward a copy of the standards to your Crown Entity Board Chairs for their information.

We have prepared the model standards in consultation with the Office of the Auditor General, the Public Service Association, a selection of Crown Entity Board chairs, and Public Service chief executives. Thank you very much to all of those who provided feedback.

Any questions about the new model standards can be directed to Catherine Williams, Deputy Commissioner (catherine.williams@ssc.govt.nz).

Kind regards

ACTING IN THE SPIRIT OF SERVICE

Conflicts of Interest

New Zealanders need to have confidence that public servants work to the highest standards of integrity in everything they do. Public servants need to exercise a high standard of judgement around the management of conflicts of interest.

— Peter Hughes, State Services Commissioner

New Zealand is held in high regard for the standards of honesty, openness, transparency and integrity in the State services, but our reputation depends upon our ability to be impartial in our decision making, and to exercise a high standard of judgement in relation to real and perceived conflicts of interest.

In a small country like New Zealand, conflicts of interest in our working lives are natural and unavoidable. The existence of a conflict of interest does not necessarily mean that someone has done something wrong. But organisations need good policies and processes to deal with conflicts of interest appropriately and staff need to be alert to the possibility of conflicts of interest and notify any conflicts promptly.

These model standards outline the State Services Commissioner's minimum expectations for staff and organisations in the State services to support effective reporting and management of conflicts of interest. The standards should be read alongside other relevant rules and standards (for example, the Crown Entities Act 2003 and the Office of the Auditor-General's guidance).

All State services organisations should ensure that these standards are integrated into policies and processes for managing conflicts of interest within their human resource, employment relations, and operational management systems.

SCOPE OF THE STANDARDS

A conflict of interest means a conflict between a public duty and private and/or personal interests. Personal interests can be financial or relate to family, friends or associates. Conflicts of interest may be actual, potential or perceived. There are three key elements to these standards:

1. Getting the foundations right from the start: organisational commitment to leadership, raising awareness, and supporting staff and managers through regular communication and training.
2. Making sure processes are robust: ensuring systems are in place for monitoring, reporting and managing conflicts of interest.
3. Supporting staff when issues arise: ensuring there are channels in place for people to raise concerns about how their declared conflict(s) of interest are being managed or breaches of the conflicts of interest policy.

GETTING THE FOUNDATIONS RIGHT FROM THE START

Organisational commitment, leadership and culture

There is a range of policies and guidance which all public servants, including chief executives, need to be aware of and comply with.

Each agency will have policies to cover such situations.

Appointment and engagement

Organisations need to ensure that people who are applying for a role or contract (including those applying for senior leadership roles, casual or contract staff, secondees, consultants, board members or volunteers) are alert to the possibility of conflicts of interest and disclose these prior to appointment. Organisations may need to take a potential conflict of interest into account when considering an individual's suitability for a role.

Training and awareness

It is important that people have access to good information and training that is regularly reviewed and updated so they are clear about what to do if they think they have a conflict of interest at any stage, and fully understand their responsibility to identify and disclose it.

Policies and procedures for full disclosure are the foundation of good management. It is a continual process as interests and conflicts change over time. Active management by the organisation is also needed to ensure that people regularly review their own interests and fully disclose any conflicts as early as possible.

Model standards:

- Organisations need regular statements from senior leadership of their expectations of people within the organisation to act honestly and ethically, and to fully and openly disclose conflicts of interest.

Model standards:

- Organisations ensure that candidates are alert to the possibility of conflicts of interest and its expectations that people will act honestly and ethically, and fully and openly disclose actual and potential conflicts of interest and this is formally recorded.
- Organisations have procedures to allow candidates to review and disclose potential conflicts of interest as part of the pre-selection process.
- Expectations relating to conflicts of interest are explicitly referred to and recorded in contractual agreements; individuals are required to sign that they have read and understood the expectations and accept responsibility for identifying and recording their relevant private interests.

Model standards:

- There are processes in all organisations for ensuring that existing and potential staff understand and are alert to the possibility of conflicts of interest and the requirement to disclose them.
- Training on recognising and disclosing conflicts of interest is covered in induction for staff and contractors, as well as following any changes to policies or procedures, supported by regular reminders of individuals' responsibility to identify and disclose.
- Training for managers includes receiving and dealing with disclosures of conflicts of interest, knowing how and when to access professional advice and support, and handling complaints or breaches of the policy.
- There are designated people or teams that staff can talk to when they think they may have a conflict of interest.
- All conflicts of interest disclosed to an organisation are assessed and either avoided or actively managed in a timely way.

MAKING SURE PROCESSES ARE ROBUST

Roles, responsibilities and accountability

Organisations need to have in place effective conflict of interest policies and processes that support robust and timely decision-making and foster public confidence in their integrity, the integrity of officials and public decision-making.

Everyone working in the State services has a duty to put the public interest above their personal or private interests when carrying out their official duties.

Appointment and Engagement	Ongoing Disclosure	Managing Conflicts	Raising Concerns
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Do you require individuals to sign an acknowledgement accepting responsibility for disclosing interests? Are candidates required to disclose potential conflicts as part of pre-selection? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Do your managers encourage teams to be alert to conflicts of interest? Do you have designated people or teams that staff can talk to when they think they may have a conflict of interest? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Is there a central mechanism in place for recording conflicts of interest? Is there support in place to assist managers receiving and managing conflict of interest situations? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Do you have processes in place where people can raise concerns about the management of their disclosure? Can people find information on how to raise a concern, such as the 'Speaking Up' standards?

Senior leaders

Those in senior roles (such as Board members or senior managers) are expected to set an example in identifying and disclosing any interests relevant to their work, given their level of influence on decisions about matters of public significance or value and their higher public profile.

Partnerships with other stakeholders

When working with other stakeholders, including contractors, consultants and service providers, organisations need to take care to communicate expectations, identify potential conflict of interest areas before the contract starts, and develop and document appropriate responses to manage risks to all parties in a potential conflict situation.

Model standards:

- Internal policies and processes designate clear roles and responsibilities and are readily available for people to access.
- Internal policies provide clear rules that define inappropriate conflicts, such as involvement in the appointment of a family member.
- There is a mechanism for recording private interests that may give rise to a conflict of interest, which is frequently updated and monitored while appropriately protecting privacy.
- The policy makes it clear that the disclosure of a private interest does not in itself resolve a conflict and measures to resolve or manage the conflict must be considered.
- When a conflict of interest is suspected to involve criminal activity, organisations will report the matter to the Police or the Serious Fraud Office.

POLICIES, PROCESSES AND CHANNELS

The main goal of identifying and managing conflicts of interest is to ensure that all operational decisions are made – and are seen to be made – legitimately, justifiably, independently and fairly.

Integrated management processes and internal controls will support timely and appropriate identification and management of any risk.

Managing conflicts

Processes for managing conflicts of interest need to be robust, understood by people in the organisation, actively managed and fit together as a whole within the organisation's framework of management policies and internal controls. Conflicts of interest need to be well managed so that public trust and confidence in the individual or the organisation is not undermined.

Assessing a situation to identify whether a conflict of interest exists and must be avoided or is able to be managed, involves weighing up the interests of the organisation, the public interest, and the legitimate interests of the individual concerned, as well as other factors such as the position the individual holds and the nature and seriousness of the conflict.

Disclosure of conflicts of interest is a continuous process as interests change and new conflicts may emerge in the course of day to day business. An example of this is where it becomes apparent before or at a meeting that an attendee has a conflict of interest with regard to an item on the agenda.

Monitoring and evaluating

Organisations' ability to understand the nature of conflicts of interest in their operational environments relies on their ability to identify particular at-risk areas for potential conflict of interest situations, track and monitor any risks, and learn from them.

Centralised tracking and monitoring requires that managers, supervisors and other designated people to whom conflicts of interest are made are able to log and provide auditable details.

Model standards:

- There are policies and processes in place for disclosing, recording and responding to conflicts of interest. Policies and processes reflect the organisation's particular functions, context and statutory requirements.
- There is a process for managing conflicts of interest which includes what constitutes a conflict, options for managing it (including considering whether or not an individual should continue to be involved with work in the potential area of conflict), who makes decisions, and potential consequences of non-compliance.
- There are clear and documented responsibilities and actions for managers receiving, assessing, managing and monitoring disclosed conflicts of interest.
- There are support mechanisms for assisting managers in reviewing and improving their skills in identifying and avoiding or managing conflicts.
- The arrangements for dealing with conflicts are clearly recorded in formal documents to enable the organisation concerned to demonstrate, if necessary, that a specific conflict has been appropriately identified and managed.
- Decision-making processes at all stages can be audited and justified.

Model standards:

- All conflicts of interest are centrally recorded and organisations have designated people responsible for tracking, monitoring and reporting to senior leadership.
- Conflicts of interest are included in organisation's risk management programmes and reporting, including any internal or external risk and assurance committees.
- There are training and systems in place to enable centralised tracking, monitoring, auditing practices and continuous improvement of policies and processes.
- The conflict of interest register is regularly reviewed, updated and included as part of the organisation's audit programme.
- Monitoring agencies regularly review Crown entities' conflict of interest policies, procedures and registers.

SUPPORTING STAFF WHEN ISSUES ARISE

Raising concerns

It is important that people have a channel to make a complaint about how the organisation is managing their declared conflict(s) of interest.

People must also be able to raise concerns about wrongdoing, including suspected impropriety in relation to disclosure/non-disclosure of interests or the management of declared interests.

The State Service Commissioner's model standards for organisations to support staff on speaking up in relation to concerns about wrongdoing can be found here.

Model standards:

- Internal policies and processes include mechanisms to allow individuals to raise concerns about how the organisation is managing their declared interest.
- All concerns raised about management of declared interests are assessed, recorded and acted on in a timely way.
- There is appropriate separation of duties and well defined roles that underpin organisations' processes in relation to concerns raised by individuals.

1 Update

Work is underway to build on potential developments following the Council's "Future Focus" workshop. While there are strong component elements present in the existing Transformation workstreams, developing new initiatives and preparing for our Investment Plan 2019-2021 and next Strategic Plan (2020 and beyond) will benefit from the workshop.

We will be introducing a series of "Celebrating Success" events over the next 12 months; the first to be held on 26 July 2018. The intention is to identify and embrace a celebratory culture for all colleagues across the institution. Attached for your information is a copy of the "Celebrating Success" nomination form.

2 Addendum to the Strategic Plan – February 2018 – Early 2019

In addition to the work that is being developed on the transformation change programme and as we look to the future, the Ara Management wanted to ensure we also remain focussed on key priorities for 2018 as well as beginning the work to set the strategic direction for the next three years.

As a result, the attached addendum to the current Strategic Plan has been developed to inform the four outcomes and focus areas, with their associated priorities and targets that we need to meet by the end of the year.

As we consider the development of Ara's next 'Strategy' all Departments and Divisions are producing business plans which will contribute to the development of our 2019-2020 Investment Plan.

Also coming out of the Transformation Agenda are refined values and a new proposed vision for Ara. Colleagues are being asked to reflect on the addendum and consider how each individual, in their work teams and in Departments and Divisions can contribute to ensuring that these priorities underpin our work.

3 Performance Report – Overview

3.1 Financial Statements

- a As at 31 May 2018, the budgeted performance was for a year-to-date deficit before abnormal items of $1.69m. The year-to-date actual deficit is $1.00m. Due to the relative timing of income and expenses a deficit is expected at this point in the year.

- b Government Funding overall is $850k below budget, this is reflective of EFTS being softer than budgeted expectations. The shortfall is predominantly within two sources of funding; SAC 3+ $447k which equates to -2% of the year-to-date budgeted income and Youth Guarantee $346k which equates to -40% of the year-to-date budgeted income.
- c Domestic Fee Income is $98.9k lower than budgeted. This is to a lesser degree than TEC funding which is the result of softer EFTS being primarily in courses with a lower student fee. Of the SAC level 3+ EFTS shortfall against budget, 80% are in programmes where the student fee component is less than $3,000 per EFTS, compared with an overall average student fee of approximately $5,000 per EFTS.
- d International Fee Income has fallen short of budgeted expectations year-to-date by $464k, this is due to a short fall of 38 EFTS year-to-date. Within Commissions and Discounts there is a partial offsetting favourable variance of $245k. Whilst savings within Commissions are expected, supplier invoicing for this can lag behind the related income.
- e Other Teaching Income is $211k less than the budgeted year-to-date expectation due largely to a contract with the Hairdressing ITO not coming to fruition and timing differences between budgeted and actual income.
- f Interest income and Other Revenue are close to budget, collectively $34k ahead.
- g Both Teaching Staff costs and Non-Teaching Staff costs are equivalent to budget for the year-to-date. Staffing budgets included cost savings that were to be made.
- h Occupancy/Property costs are marginally over budget.
- i General Operating Expenditure is $1.57m less than budget year-to-date expectation, with savings being achieved against most types of expenditure. This is primarily the result of senior management proactively managing discretionary spend across the institution.
- j Depreciation expenses are currently less than budgeted. It is anticipated that depreciation expenses will be less than budgeted at year-end due to the later completion of some projects. Additionally, computer leases (which are treated as depreciation) have been re-negotiated to achieve savings.
- k In Cash Flows, $187k now appears in Purchase of Other Financial Assets. This is the ongoing investment in the TANZ eCampus platform. There are no other unusual movements in the Financial Position or Cash Flows.

The incidents included, three cuts, three strain, two burns, three trips, one exposure to bodily fluids, one faint, two no injury, one bumped head, and one road accident not work related. None of the injuries were serious. One strain injury resulted in three lost days.
- b A contractor completing electrical work without appropriate qualification was asked to leave the site. The contractor's employer and Ara staff who engaged the contractor have been reminded of our contractor management responsibilities and procedures.
- c The Timaru Health and Safety Committee met during the period.
- d One nomination for the vacant Health and Safety representative position for the Southern Campuses has been accepted. No election is necessary.
- e Additional cleaning and asbestos in air testing has been undertaken in ST Block following concerns being raised. No asbestos was detected in the air samples.
- f The gas procedures at Trades have been reviewed and ratified.
- g Fire and Emergency visited our student accommodation to be assured Ara fire safety procedures are effective. This follows three false alarms in the past 12 months (one malicious, one hair spray entering smoke detector, and one burned food). The Health and Safety Manager met with the available Residential Assistants to reiterate evacuation procedures in the event of a fire alarm.

ARA COUNCIL REPORT SUMMARY
TITLE OF REPORT	Pasifika Strategy Update
BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Pasifika Strategy was launched April 2017. This up-date provides an overview of progress to date.
RECOMMENDATION(S)	1. That the implementation be noted.
LINK TO ARA STRATEGY	Outcomes for Pasifika learner are articulated in the Ara Strategy where parity of achievement for Pasifika learners is the key focus, thus raising organisational expectations for this learner group.
KEY ISSUES IDENTIFIED	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> There is good organisational energy around the advancements to-date in supporting Pasifika students to success The Pasifika Advisory Group (PAG) is a key conduit to the local community Ara Pasifika colleagues and students are leveraging visibility around Pasifika to establish their voice through the organisation.
FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR ARA	-
RISK IMPLICATIONS FOR ARA	Outcomes for Pasifika learners are articulated in the Tertiary Education Strategy with a focus on boosting achievement of Pasifika: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> There is an increase in rates of progression for Pasifika from study at levels 1 to 3 to higher levels. There are increased rates of Pasifika enrolling in and completing qualifications at levels 4 and above. There are better employment outcomes for Pasifika graduates (or, for lower level qualifications, progression to higher qualifications). Ara has a responsibility to respond to this policy focus.

Pasifika Strategy Update

Outcome 1 - Pasifika student participate, progress and achieve qualifications

2016 to 2017 there was a reduction in the actual number of Pasifika students studying at Ara (30 students), with EFTS only marginally behind over the same period (5.4EFTS). As at May 2018, enrolment patterns for Pasifika students show promising signs, with 478 students already enrolled for the year, representing 245.7EFTS. Enrolment patterns also show full-time students enrolment as being strong, exceeding 2016 levels and only 3 students behind 2017. Over the 3 year period there is also evidence to show that proportionally enrolments are trending toward Degree and Diploma level programmes and away from Certificate programmes.

Increased Pasifika student participation has also been seen in the 2017 and 2018 Pasifika student welcome. In 2017 Ara hosted 65 students and 15 family members to a welcome event. In 2018 this had grown to 70 students and 16 family members.

Ara Enrolment - Pasifika Students
Year	Full-time	Part-time	Total	EFTS
2016	223	493	708	313.7
2017	228	462	678	308.3
2018	225	265	478	245.3

Note: Variation in aggregate Full-time and Part-time against the Total student count is due to student enrolment in multiple programmes

Student success is measured across a range of dimensions.

Over the past years 2015-17, Pasifika Student course completion has been 72.7%, 75.9% and 72.5%. Of the 2018 students that have completed courses in the last 3 weeks, course completion sits at 78.5%. These outcomes still sit well beneath organisation outcomes of around 85%. There is no one contributing programme or course that appears to be limiting Pasifika student achievement. Small numbers of student enrolments across a wide variety of programme make it difficult to establish a pattern 2015-18. The programmes with the greatest decrease in student performance from 2016 to 2017 have been identified and are being monitored in 2018.

Over the past years 2015-17, Pasifika Student qualification completion has been 58.0%, 55.7% and 61.6%. These outcomes still sit well beneath organisation outcomes of 82% qualification completion for 2017. Programmes with the greatest decrease in student qualification completion or where there are consistent patterns of poor qualification completion from 2016 to 2017 have been identified and are being monitored in 2018.

Pasifika student progression from 2016 to 2017 was 32.8% against an organisational rate of 22.6%. Given the nature of student enrolment in 2016, where proportionally more Pasifika students enrolled in Certificate level programmes than Diploma or Degree programmes, it is not unexpected to see strong progression results. Pasifika student progression from 2017 to 2018 has dropped to 26.9%. With proportionally higher enrolment in Diploma and Degree programmes in 2017 the opportunity for next step enrolment in higher level qualifications is more limited for students in 2018, and could explain the decrease.

Retention of Pasifika students into 2017 and 2018 saw a 3.5% decline over time. For 2016 students, 57.6% of Pasifika student re-enrolled in 2017 or graduated, against an organisational outcome of 58.6%. Pasifika students enrolled in 2017 saw 52.2% re-enrol in 2018 or graduate, against an organisational outcome of 55.1%. It is natural at this time that 2018 retention is less than 2017 as 2018 enrolments are still being taken for S2.

Outcome 2 – The learning environment at Ara incorporates Pasifika values

With planned vacation of spaces on the City Campus, following the shift of Nursing, Midwifery and Medical Imaging students to HREF, an opportunity will exist to set aside a much needed study space for Pasifika learners. The Pacific Island Student Group (PISA) has been proactive in raising this and as space becomes available, we will work towards this.

More broadly and as is possible through the campus re-development, Pasifika themes have been included. This is strongly evident through the artwork in Te Kei in the most recent build.

The learning environment is significantly shaped by the activities that occur within Ara. The growing presence of PISA and their contribution to Ara activities has been evident during 2017 and into 2018. This year PISA have this year taken an active role in hosting students to the Pasifika student welcome. In recent weeks, PISA played a key role in the launch of Samoan Language week and a first ever onsite Ava Ceremony. The increased visibility of PISA is a critical component to demonstrating the Ara commitment to Pasifika education.

Outcome 3 – Increase Pasifika graduate employment rates

A measure of employment outcomes comes from the Graduate Outcome Survey. In 2016, 14 Pasifika graduates completed this voluntary survey. In 2017, this had increased to 37.

Proportionally those that were in current employment when the survey was completed increased from 2016 to 2017 from 64.3% to 67.6%. As the survey sample was significantly larger in 2017 the real number of graduates in work was substantively higher, 9 vrs 25 people. Over the same period there has been a noticeable shift in the salary ranges of graduates towards upper salary bands. Graduates over this period reported that the qualification they had completed is “very or of some relevance” to their position, increasing from 66.7% to 84.6%.

Outcome 4 – Pasifika staff participate and progress within the organisation across management, teaching, research, administration and support roles

Overall Ara Pasifika staff numbers have increased into Q2 2018 to 24. With a smaller number of overall Ara staff this translates to a slight proportional increase in Pasifika staff numbers to 1.6%. Samoans are still the largest representative group, which is reflective of the wider Canterbury community. It is noted one significant Ara Pasifika colleague has moved on to a senior role at the Ministry of Pacific Peoples.

Ara Pasifika Staff
	August 2017	November 2017	February 2018	May 2018
Cook Island Maori	2	3	3	2
Fijian (except Fiji Indian/Indo-Fijian)	2	2	2	2
Fijian Indian/Indo- Fijian	2	2	2	3

Total	23	23	21	24
Sample	1580	1522	1413	1454
	1.45%	1.51%	1.48%	1.65%

Ara is experiencing increased and broadening Pasifika leadership. Where reliance on a few existed to host events and take key leaderships roles, there is evidence to show more colleagues are stepping into these spaces. Similarly, from a participation perspective more Pasifika colleagues are engaged in Ara Pasifika activities. This is creating some tension where some staff are directly employed in a role that has a Pasifika context and others are not. Colleagues are seeking from Ara some guidance around how those that are not in Pasifika based roles have sufficient “space” within a work context to contribute and participate. TKM has recently agreed to progress this through a discussion with senior managers and a process to agree to participation.

In October 2018 Ara will host the 2018 APSTE Conference. An organising committee of 10 Ara Pasifika colleagues are co-ordinating this national event, which will provide an opportunity for all Pasifika staff to engage with colleagues through NZ.

Academic Board Report

1 Student Representatives

Emma McCallum (2nd yr Bachelor of Social Work) and Natacha Varlet (1st yr New Zealand Diploma in Architecture Technology) have joined the Academic Board as the student representatives from the Ara Student Council. They were warmly welcomed to the Board and have since taken part in an Academic Board induction.

2 Policy Update

The Board received an implementation plan related to the introduction and implementation of the TANZ Harmonisation regulations, as approved by Academic Board in December 2017. The revised Assessment policy was submitted and approved. It was agreed that the timeframe for return of assessments of two weeks would be continued. In the rare occasion when an extension of time was required for a particular assessment in an occurrence a request would be made to the Deputy Chief Executive - Learning, Delivery, Innovation and Applied Research.

3 Programme Reviews

The Bachelor of Midwifery has been delivered concurrently with Otago Polytechnic. This relationship has now ended and Ara are seeking approval for its own programme of study. Changes to the qualification have been made to align with recent changes made by the Midwifery Council of New Zealand.

4 2017 Graduate Outcome Survey

The survey of 2017 graduates has now been completed with results analysed and reported to the Academic Board. The response rate was down slightly on 2016 (46.4%) at 42%.

Graduates reported:

- An increase in satisfaction in achieving their main purpose of study 90.1%.(+1.5%).
- An increase in satisfaction that their time spent at Ara studying has increased their chances of gaining employment to 55.8% (+2.0%).
- An increase in the relevance of their qualification to their employment – up to 84.7% (+0.9%).
- Over half of Ara graduates (50.6%) earn $40,000 or more per year with 25% earning within the pay band of $40,000 - $49,000.
 - 45.6% of Engineering and Architectural graduates now earn over $50,000 annually and have overtaken Trades to become the top earners in 2017. In 2016, Trades was the highest with 52.9% earning $50,000 or more.
 - Of note, 27.9% of Humanities graduates earn $60,000 or more annually.
- There was a slight reduction (-1.4%) in satisfaction that Ara met their needs at 85.9.

Departments will be responding to their individual results at the Board of Studies meetings and using the data to inform their self-assessment processes throughout 2018.
