Convictions against the law

As all accepted applicants are police vetted through the enrolment process, it is important that this initial declaration is correct. If an applicant provides information that is provided to be false/misleading, the application/enrolment may be declined/withdrawn.

When accepted onto the programme you will be asked to complete and return a NZ Police Vetting Request and Consent form before or at your orientation.

Your consent to disclosure will be entered by Ara onto the NZ Police Licensing and Vetting Service, database and returned in confidence to the Faculty Head or delegated authority.

Information on the Police Vetting Service is available from: www.police.govt.nz/service/vetting

Have you ever been convicted of any offence against the law (apart from minor traffic convictions)?      Yes      No

If YES, please give details.

I hereby declare that the information I have given above is true and correct. I understand that making a false declaration is an offence under the Crimes Act 1961.
